MONTE VISTA WATER DISTRICT HONORS EMPLOYEES AT ANNUAL AWARDS EVENT

“2009 Employee of the Year” and Service Awards Presented

MONTCLAIR, CA Justin Scott-Coe of Riverside was named the “2009 Monte Vista Water District Employee of the Year,” and seven employees were recognized for a collective 85 years of service at the District’s annual employee awards event held recently.

Scott-Coe, public affairs specialist, has been employed at the District since January 2007. His responsibilities include creating and implementing water conservation and water education programs, customer communications, community outreach and special administrative projects most recently related to the recycled water program, development of budget-based tiered rates, and a landscaping design project for District facilities.

Co-workers, who nominated him for the award, describe Scott-Coe as “conscientious about performing his duties, reliable, dedicated, goes ‘above and beyond,’ a great asset to the District, great teamwork, has made major contributions toward accomplishing District goals in 2009.”

Special recognition was given to the following employees for their years of service to the District:

Ray Welborn of Rancho Cucamonga, facilities maintenance technician, 30 years

Jeff Malloy of Fontana, water systems operator III, 20 years

Kathy Standridge of Montclair, projects assistant, engineering department, 10 years

Gonzalo Pantoja of West Covina, water systems operator II, 10 years

Todd Paxson of Yucaipa, utility crew leader, 5 years

James Trott of Ontario, water systems operator II, 5 years

Tony Vega of Temple City, utility service worker II, 5 years

“It is an honor to recognize these dedicated and loyal employees who make significant contributions in the achievement of the District’s mission and goals,” said Sandra Rose, president of the board of directors. A luncheon event, attended by employees and members of the District’s Board of Directors, was held at the District and featured an Olympic Games sports challenge.
